

Social and Behavioural Sciences for Cyber Security Conference

Level 39, CybSafe - 09.30 to 16.30, 25th September 2019

09.30 Arrive, coffee, networking

9.45 Welcome and introduction: Professor Debi Ashenden, University of Portsmouth & Oz Alashe, Cybsafe

10.15 Academic Keynote: Dr David Ellis, Lancaster University

"Shape shifting – building interdisciplinary teams in behavioural science"

10.45 Sanja Budimir, Ghent University - "Users of IoT home devices through the lenses of emotion psychology"

11.00 Georgia Crossland, Royal Holloway, University of London - "At the end of the day if they want to rob me they will': Exploring Perceptions of Information Security Threats and Communications Using the Social Psychological Literature"

11.15 Break

11.45 Iain Reid, University of Portsmouth - "A Heated Debate: Physical and environmental factors and their effect on the perception of cyber security risk"

12.00 Meredydd Williams, Roke Manor - "Security behaviour change through smartwatch games"

12.15 Sathpal Panesar, Bob's Business - "What makes YOU click - A psychological explanation of what causes users to click on phishing emails"

12.30 Helen Jones, University of Central Lancashire - "Exploring the impact of multi-tasking on cyber security decision-making"

12.45 Lunch

13.45 Industry Keynote: Pete Cooper, Pavisade

"Working on the edge – Pushing multidisciplinary boundaries in cyber security"

14.15 Duncan Greaves, Coventry University - "Information Security and Trust Formation"

14.30 Kirsty Macmillan, Heriot-Watt University - "What are the online safety risks for autistic children? A mixed methods study"

14.45 Isabella Manghi, CybSafe - "Cyber risk management in the board room"

15.00 Tamara Lopez, Open University - "Strategies for managing risk in professional secure software development"

15.15 Break

15.45 Panel discussion. "Moving between academia and the real world" – Dr John McAlaney, Bournemouth University (chair); Professor Debi Ashenden, University of Portsmouth; Dr John Blythe, CybSafe; Pete Cooper, Pavisade; Dr David Ellis, Lancaster University.

16.25 Wrap up

16.30 Conference close